A wonderful, multifarious update on the already splendid 4th edition

By Mikhail Dolbilov

A wonderful, multifarious update on the already splendid 4th edition! Both thrilling and practical. Pleasure to read before, while and after (and perhaps even without!) staying in the country.

Great guide book

By Christina

It was one of the few guide books in Albania. I just returned from this fascinating and beautiful country. The book was very helpful about important cities and things to see. One of the things in the book most helpful to me is it gave me a list of many tour companies that could put a took together private tours. I got quotes from several company and used one of the companies listed in the book Elite Travel. They did an outstanding job. That so much for taking the guess work out of traveling!

Best Albanian Tour Guide Book

By Melissa P.

Great book. I had the 3rd edition when I went 8 years ago. After reading felt well equipped. Many young natives commented that I know more about Albania and the places to see, and rivers, and history than they did. Looking forward to seeing and doing more, this time with a group of friends and family. I am sure I will feel well equipped with this updated book. I know it has more maps and details than the previous edition.
