is one of the best books of the series

By Richard Fisher

This, my friends, is one of the best books of the series. It really ties up and resolves the story save for one thread--Goran One-Eye finding a way home. One of the things I liked the most was that every few chapters would change perspective to different characters; other than just focusing on one character (ex. some chapters would be about Goran and Davin while others would be about Felrad, Valora, or Yannis.) It was short without a lot of depth, but that just makes it a great fun read. Finally, and sadly, this book is out of print and was never published here in the States to my knowledge. BUT, you can get the e-book version, which I don't think ever goes out of print, for a price much cheaper than it would cost you to import it from overseas. If nothing else just reading all the ways Goran lost his eye are worth it.
