One of Library Journal's Best Books of 2015

"Holmes...is a noted pioneering street lit author. His smooth-flowing narrative mixes crime, sex, and sassy street language, giving his protagonists a true life-in-the-streets feel. This will more than satisfy serious readers of urban fiction."

--Library Journal (Starred Review, Pick of the Month)

"I read this book in one sitting....It's a great way to escape and be entertained for a few hours."

--Baltimore Times

"Pure entertainment."

--Hawt Reads

Dixyn Greene has it all. She is a hustler's wife, the mother of a beautiful daughter, and she owns a town house and a nice car--she's living the life. But when the feds arrest her man, Dixyn's whole world begins to crumble. Quickly things go from bad to worse--as the bills begin to mount, her ability to continue to maintain her lavish lifestyle is put to the test. Strapped for cash, her good intentions lead to bad decisions.

Enter Brian Winters, B-Dub, and her one saving grace, or so she initially believes. In Dixyn's time of need, B-Dub turns out to be no more than an opportunist with his own agenda. Dixyn becomes indebted to him and is forced to do his bidding in order to survive. With B-Dub on her back, she submerges herself into the murky waters of street life and is soon entangled in a web of lust, betrayal, blackmail, and deceit. She ultimately discovers that there are no rules in the game. In the game, loyalty is limited. Trust will get you hurt and love will get you killed.

Infamous Books, curated by Albert "Prodigy" Johnson from the legendary hip-hop group Mobb Deep, is a revolutionary partnership that pairs the Infamous Records brand with Brooklyn-based independent publisher Akashic Books. Infamous Books' mission is to connect readers worldwide to crime fiction and street lit authors both familiar and new. Releases include works by national best sellers JaQuavis Coleman, K'wan, Miasha, Prodigy, and many others forthcoming.

The was not one of my best reads by Shannon Holmes

By Briana Rodgers

The was not one of my best reads by Shannon Holmes. Dixyn was very slow to the game and after the DEA comes in and arrest her fiance, Bryce, things went from sugar to s real quick. With all the money gone and things being repossessed Dixyn has to turn to stripping to try and maintain. At the club is where she meets her future brother in law B-DUB, who is all about himself. Dixyn's life is steady spiraling out of control. Being manipulated by her friend Kendra and B-DUB, Dixyn is caught up in doing runs for B-DUB and later witnessing a murder. Now that her daughter, Ava has been kidnapped, Dixyn has had enough of being caught up in the tangled web.

an alright read

By Amazon Customer Nells

The character of Dixyn was really naive. After witnessing the arrest of her boyfriend Bryce and losing everything she restored to desperation. What I did not like about this story is how the character of d dub was written. He just showed up and then thrown in the storyline. Then Bryce was not mention for quite awhile in the storyline. It's like he never existed. Not a bad read the message at the end was received. Three and a half stars.

Great story!

By Amazon Customer

I read "Caught Up" in three hours.

The story is about a young woman by the name of Dixyn who is in love and lives with a hustler named Bryce. They both have a small daughter together. On the night he proposes to her, their house was raided by the DEA and he gets arrested. He goes to prison and Dixyn is left to pick up the pieces.

It was difficult for her to say the least, because she was accustomed to living a lavish lifestyle. But as the bills poured in, she quickly discovered she had to make some moves in order not to lose the house and car. She only had a high school diploma and no job training whatsoever.

Dixyn reaches out to her friend, Kendra who then exposes her into an unfamiliar world. A world where she makes some hard choices and compromises in order to keep afloat.

It is in this same world where she meets Bryce's brother, Brian Winters, who goes by B-Dub, where things go from bad to worst.

"Caught Up" is suspenseful, and the type of book where you don't want to put it down because you want to see what will happen next.
