Description: Jax Weller was on his way out. He had made the ultimate choice for the benefit of his family. The night that he and his beloved wife Kara and their two sons were set to escape the world of violence and danger that they had lived in someone else had other plans.

Now he is on his own, travelling through this world, all alone. He seeks revenge, he seeks peace, he seeks forgiveness. He has no idea that what he seeks is about to be his, but can he accept what it is that he is looking for when he gets it.

Length: approx. 11,600 words.

Excerpt: "I want you to cum inside me; I'm on the pill, it's OK!" she said. He smiled. He was a biker and to deny him that would have been an insult to him and his way of life. I'm glad she's the kinda girl who's willing, he thought as he rammed into her, giving her what he had. It was more than she expected to be sure, and when they were done he lay beside her on the bed catching his breath.

"You're incredible" he said.

Child of Chaos

By Stephanie

So far I'm intrigued. I look forward to continuing the rest. Although I'm familiar with the characters already,

I'm curious to find out what happens next with the main character.

Hmm, not sure yet.....

By Karen Lynn Turner

Hmmm, where do I start. First, I am giving this a 2-star review because this is merely a prologue to the series and therefore wasn't very long in length. Secondly, I am really on the fence on how I feel about this series. As a long time fan of SOA I am finding it hard to be a fan, at this stage, of this series. For the most part it appears this series is picking up during Season 6 of SOA. Which is fine, however, the names of the characters in "Child of Chaos" are almost comical. This is not sitting well for me as SOA is anything but comical. For example, Jax Weller = Jax Teller; Kara = Tara, and so on.

As for the erotica factor of the series, I think this will hold many a reader's attention. And it is for this reason primarily that I will give this series a chance and continue on to book 1. I think if I am able to separate my feelings for SOA from my feelings for this series, I may have a different opinion later. I guess time will tell.

All I can say for sure is that if you are a die hard fan of SOA, this is a series worth checking out. How you feel about it though is entirely your call. For me, I am treading lightly.
