If you have ever worked for a client, faced a deadline, or wondered about the meaning of life, you'll identify with the more than 200 sayings in this book.

Compiled by Larry Jordan with entries from video editors around the world, each entry needed to meet three rules:

1. Each needed to be 20 words or less - which was more, or less, enforced.
2. An entry that made the judges laugh scored extra points
3. Entries needed to be suitable for a "family audience."

Lots of fun and helpful truisms.

By DemetriousRosebud

This book is fun, but never frivolous, which is something writer Larry Jordan excels at. He makes learning editing interesting! Full of helpful tips and cutting techniques, this is a great tool to use when your favorite client leans over your head and questions your technique. It's always nice to have one-liner retorts when working in L.A.!
