Good info for designing a Financial Planning practice

By Artephius (.

As a Registered Investment Advisor planning my own Financial Planning practice, this book was an excellent source of marketing data and potential marketing strategies.

Based upon survey data with significant sample sizes, the best way to land high net worth clients is through their lawyers first, and accountants second.

I enjoyed the alternative methods for encouraging lawyers.....and/or accountants to refer high net worth clients to financial planners.

All-in-all a good source of marketing strategy information for financial planning professionals.

Book was easy to read and written well.

High net worth investors might enjoy the book, in order to understand the various marketing strategies and relationships between financial planners, lawyers, and accountants.

I would suggest companion books to supplement this book including:

The Richest Man in Babylon

Bogle on Mutual Funds: New Perspectives for the Intelligent Investor

The Millionaire Next Door

The Four Pillars of Investing: Lessons for Building a Winning Portfolio

A Random Walk Down Wall Street: The Time-Tested Strategy for Successful Investing, Ninth Edition

The Coffeehouse Investor: How to Build Wealth, Ignore Wall Street, and Get On With Your Life

The Bogleheads' Guide to Investing

Wealth: Grow It, Protect It, Spend It, and Share It

All About Asset Allocation.
