"Anyone who knows the Jewel Ornament well can say that they really understand Buddhism."—Khenpo Konchog Gyaltzen

"Contains a wealth of useful material for anyone committed to the study and practice of the path and stages, or the Great Vehicle. The introduction is a fine overview of the text, given in a form accessible to the Western non-scholar practitioner. In fact, the introduction constitutes the contents of a single course on the Great Vehicle. . . . Provides a fine biography of Gampopa."—Tibet Journal

I felt it read like stereo instructions

By James

This is a very hard read especially for someone just now looking into the Buddhist traditions. I felt it read like stereo instructions. Maybe I will find more appreciation of it later.

Dakpo Targen

By Kay K. Duncan

This is a classic Tibetan Buddhist text written by Gampopa, the chief disciple of Milarepa and the forefather of the Kagyu lineage. It is mainly for serious students and practitioners of Tibetan Buddhism and is meant to be read carefully, studied and contemplated. As Gampopa has reportedly stated, studying this text is the same as meeting him.
