A LOVE TRIANGLE . . . IN A BATHTUB???

When Viveca Stanhope fled a scandalous past in San Francisco to make a new life for herself in Victorian Savannah, little did she know she'd be landing in a Southern Gothic version of "Spook City." From the sexy ghost in her bathtub to the werewolf howling outside her window, "Hangman's House" is indeed a fright! And Viveca's "Nightmare on Lost Lane" comes complete with a half-crazed housekeeper, a mysterious houseboy with a fetish for knife-throwing and numerous other odd bedfellows.

Still, Viveca is determined to find her place in Savannah society and pursue a prominent local clergyman. But two sexy rogues stand between her and her goals: the bawdy ghost of Alexander Fremont, "haunted" Savannah's answer to a rubber ducky; and Maxwell Beecher, Viveca's devilishly handsome, arrogant new neighbor, who deems himself the answer to her prayers. Both would know all her dark secrets; both would unmask the passions she struggles so hard to repress.

Will one of them claim her heart and soul before she loses her mind?

THE PHANTOM OF THE BATHTUB is a spooky, sexy and riotously funny historical paranormal romance of approximately 105,000 words.

Also Available in Kindle by Eugenia Riley: TEMPEST IN TIME; TWO HEARTS IN TIME; and her latest, TIMESWEPT BABY.

EDITORIAL REVIEWS:

FOUR STARS! "Riley blends the real world with the supernatural seamlessly as she interweaves the romances of both Viveca and Max with that of the ghosts, Alex and Lorelei. Amusing and engaging."
–ROMANTIC TIMES

FIVE STARS! "Readers obtain two romances for the price of one! These four characters and an eccentric support cast make for a humorous storyline. Ms. Riley ensures that her audience not only believes in ghosts, but also trusts that love is eternal." –Harriet Klausner, #1 AMAZON REVIEWER.

TOP PICK! "Let Eugenia Riley charm you with this unique story. THE PHANTOM OF THE BATHTUB is a paranormal, a mystery and a passionate romance. A page-turning, sensual and sometimes eerie romp into the Old South." –Julie Kornhausl, ROMANCE READER AT HEART.

"I loved THE PHANTOM OF THE BATHTUB. Eugenia Riley does an incredible job of creating situations that appeal to all the senses. The text is so rich in the scenery that you can almost smell the magnolias, the colors of the trees, and so much more. The characters have quite a bit of depth to them. Great study of human beliefs, which creates some thought, but in addition to all of that, Eugenia gives us humor (and lots of it!)"
–Lori Graham, ONCE UPON A ROMANCE.

“THE PHANTOM OF THE BATHTUB is an engaging tale about things that go bump in the night.”
–Jennifer Bishop, ROMANCE REVIEWS TODAY

Enjoyed the story but not the editing.

By I Love My Cats

While I enjoyed the story and would have given it a 4 star rating, the editing is atrocious. There are missing words, added words and incorrect words throughout. While it is readable, it would be even more so if edited properly.

Fun and perfectly SILLY!

By J. Arena

The Phantom of the Bathtub is a book that friends of mine have been passing around for some time. Because of everything they said about it, I just couldn't wait for my turn to read the treasured and tattered copy. After buying my own copy on Amazon, I must say that my friends were right. This is a perfectly nutty book that is not destined to become a classic -- except among friends who recommend it to each other.

Consider this my recommendation, friend! You are in for quite a bit of entertainment and will probably pass your copy on, as well.

The Phantom of the Bathtub has that special something that only a special audience could enjoy!

Spooky Romance...something different

By elissipy

I really enjoyed this book and finished it within a couple of days. Romance aside, the writing was good and description of the hauntings actually gave me the willies. Though it did feel a little clichéd at some points this did not detract from the storyline and characters for me. Heroine was the perfectly cool and independant type...however I will confess to being a little disappointed with the male lead...he was not as complex as first promised. Fun with a couple of twists...I especially loved the feel of 'Savannah' that pratically oozed off the page.

Overall I would definately recommend and look forward to reading more from 'Eugenia Riley'.
