About the Author

JC Calciano has worked as a film producer for 25 years and has worked in various capacities on films such as: Mission: Impossible, The Fisher King, Star Trek, and others. When not working on features, JC worked as a writer/producer/director on a great many television programs. After 25 years of producing professionally, his mid-life crisis kicked in. He realized that although he loved producing, the dream that had originally brought him into the film business was to write and direct. JC stopped producing and started writing. At 45 years old, he wrote his first feature film, Is It Just Me? (2010) It was his first film as a writer and director. It was an over-night hit and became the official selection of over 50 international film festivals and won several awards and honors, including audience choice and best picture. From that point on, he was hooked. He had the writing bug and set forth to make another film. JC's second feature film, eCupid (2012), became another best seller in the LGBTQ market and won four best picture and audience choice awards. His newfound passion for romantic comedy films, as well as the desire to tell the story of his best friends' semi-romantic tryst, inspired him to write his third feature film, The 10 Year Plan (2015). The film was screened at over 51 international film festivals and winner of 10 awards for best feature and screenplay. The 10 Year Plan screenplay was selected as a finalist in the Rainbow Literary Awards. This honor inspired JC to write the screenplay into a novel for those who enjoy reading rather than watching a film. This book is JC's first novel and his faithful adaptation of the screenplay and movie of the same name. He hopes that you enjoy the book as much as the audience has enjoyed the movie. Seductively sweet!

By WS Long

I'll have to admit. I cheated. I saw the movie first and then read this book. And disclaimer: I met the author at GRL where I bought the DVD and only because I liked eCupid but we are not friends in real life. I just loved eCupid.

Getting back to this: I liked the characters' interactions in the movie, particularly Brody and Myles. The bromance between the cops was funny, and a blast to watch. The book and movie is based on real people the author knows so it's not a m/m conversion of My Best Friend's Wedding, which is the biggest comparison I can make.

It's a seductively sweet story of two friends falling in love with each other over the years and afraid of really saying it out loud to each other until push comes to shove.

Highly recommended // Great storyline based on a true story

By tere

I have found The Ten Year Plan to be a very enjoyable read. It was well written, effectively holding my attention as I anticipated certain plot turns, but not all of them. The fact that it is based on a true story premise made it even more interesting to me. The character development was great. It was a light, relaxing & satisfying storyline. I would highly recommend this book to others !

2015 Rainbow Awards Honorable Mention

By Elisa

This was a great story. The plot was excellent. The characters were engaging, believable, relateable, the scenarios presented within the novel were true to life and the dialogue presented was lively, entertaining, and realistic. In an age where there are so many gay/bi men content to use the Grindr app for purely physical, one-night stands, while other gay/bi men are looking for their happily ever after it was nice to read about two men who end up finding it together and how they both ended up where they were. I did love the fact that the author included the recipes that Myles used in the story at the end of the book and then some Do's and Dont's thoughts from Brody as well.

I've seen the movie and it was a happy surprise to see a book was written and it was just as great as the script.
